

GCAA

GEORGIA
CONSTRUCTION
AGGREGATE
ASSOCIATION

Associate Membership

Any person, firm, corporation, or other organized group involved in the construction aggregate industry but does not produce or sell State-approved construction aggregates is deemed eligible otherwise by the Board of Directors to be admitted to Associate Membership. The GCAA Board of Directors has set the Annual Dues at $1400 per year.

Purpose of the Association

To encourage the highest ideals and ethics in all matters relating to the activities of the construction aggregate industry and those members associated with the Georgia Construction Aggregate Association.

To advocate positions in the interest of the industry to public organizations and government agencies and promote the continued and expanded use of crushed stone products as a durable and quality building material.

To educate various public groups through the dissemination of accurate information concerning the production, uses, transportation and marketing of construction aggregates.

To provide training of industry employees through technical and management seminars on safety, health, environmental compliance, and community relations for the benefit of the general public and the protection of our employees.
